

Thank you for choosing The Britannia Inn, and a warm welcome from us all. You have found an incredibly special part of the Lake District, and as such, we'll endeavour to provide you with a special experience to remember, and hopefully, encourage you to return!

The Britannia is around 500 years old, and for roughly the first 300 years of its life was a gentleman farmer's house, with what is now our cellar and staff accommodation, barns for livestock. The area which we rather grandly call the 'Resident's Lounge', through the Dining Room, used to be a cobbler's shop, and separate to the farmhouse.

About 200 years ago the farmhouse became an Inn, although how it came to be known as 'The Britannia Inn' seems to be a mystery. Nonetheless, we hope that you will greatly enjoy whiling away some time either indoors amongst the oak-beamed rooms, or outside looking out across the village & Elterwater Tarns.

If you can join us for an overnight stay, we have nine double or twin-bedded rooms, all but one with en suite shower and toilet and all recently refurbished. Please ask for a brochure. If your visit is simply for refreshment, we hope that you will sample some local real ale and have a bite to eat. Please note that all our food is fresh, mainly Cumbrian and cooked here on the premises, so at busy times, in our tiny kitchen, we beg your understanding and patience. Please be assured that we are working as fast as we can!
